

Hinsdale Public Library Study Room Policy

Study Room Purpose

Hinsdale Public Library provides study rooms to enable individuals or small groups to work or study privately during regular library hours. This policy applies to all rooms designated as study rooms by the Executive Director.

Study Room Use

Use of the study rooms located in the Youth and Young Adult Services Department is intended for use by those of high school age and younger and any accompanying adult(s). Adults unaccompanied by youth should use the study rooms located on the main floor of the library.

Use of the study rooms located on the main floor of the library is intended for those of high school age and above. Those younger than high school age should use the study rooms in Youth and Young Adult Services.

Rules of Behavior

Those using study rooms must comply with all rules of behavior as set forth in the Library Board's statement of Policies Governing Behavior in the Library.

Commercial Use

Study rooms are not intended for commercial use.

Policy Review and Revision

This document will be reviewed by the Board at least biennially.